FAQ:

Q: How long can I hold the date for?

A: We can hold the date for you provisionally for as long as we have no other interest in the date. If we get another booking request for that date we will follow up with you to see if you want to confirm.

Q: What time can we access the building?

A: The earliest time you can enter the building would be 11am.

Q: Can you store things for the day?

A Yes we can - you are more than welcome to drop off items the day before your function. But we do insist it is picked up promptly the day after your function.

Q: Can we decorate the venue?

A: Yes - we permit free standing decorations such as balloon arches but do not allow anything to be stuck to the walls or ceiling, we also don't allow glitter to be used in the venue for decoration.

Q: Can we have live music?

A: Yes you can organise your own entertainment, please be aware we do not permit drums in the building. All entertainment must be agreed to by our Bookings Manager in advance of the booking

Q: Can we have fireworks/confetti?

A: Sadly we cannot permit fireworks or confetti in the building or on our grounds.

Q: When would we have the venue until?

A: You would have full use of the venue until midnight on the date of your function, we are able to apply for a Temporary Event Notice, at an additional cost, if you wish to extend the party until 1am - but this would need to be agreed and permitted by the Bookings Manager in advance of the booking.

Q: What is the cancellation policy?

A: We require 28days notice of cancellation of the function.

Q: Do you arrange set up?

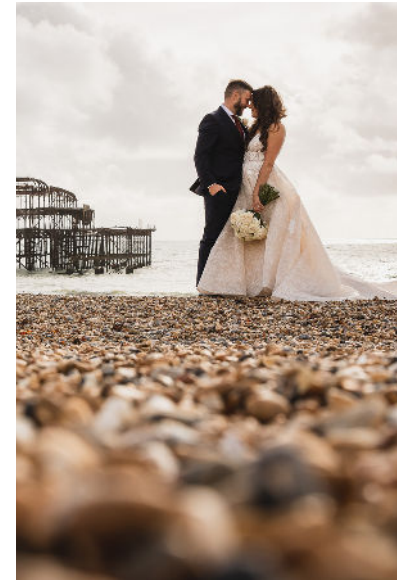

A: We set up your tables with cutlery and glassware, we don't set up table décor or any other decorations - this will need to be organised by yourself.

Q: Who will be our point of contact for the venue?

A: We have a dedicated bookings manager who will take you through all the steps to get your special day organised with us, as well as this on the day you will be introduced to our Duty Manager who will be your point of contact for the day.

Q: When do you need pre-orders for food and drinks?

A: We require food pre-orders to be given to us 2 weeks prior to your function including any dietary requirements. We also require any table wine/arrival/toast drinks to be pre-ordered at least 2 weeks in advance of the booking to ensure the venue has stocked correctly for your function.

KIND WORDS:

"If you're thinking of getting married here, do it. The best decision we made! The venue is absolutely stunning, with iconic views of the West Pier."

Sophie Chaytor-Grubb

"We had our wedding here and it couldn't have gone better. The staff were just gorgeous to everyone all night. The food was delicious. Spectacular value from a great venue with unparalleled views."

Rachel Nekanda-Trepka

"Everything was set up perfectly and the staff were incredible. They were just the right amount of attentive and were on hand taking care of everything. The food was amazing, so tasty and high quality. The whole venue decor and setting was perfect."
